Relationship to You

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

Because of the nature of the work of Scarborough Survivors, this post falls under the exemptions to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 in respect of disclosure. Applicants are therefore not entitled to withhold information about convictions which for other purposes are 'spent' under the terms of the Act. Should we offer you employment and you have failed to disclose such convictions, you could be dismissed or face disciplinary action.

If you do have to declare a conviction, you will not necessarily be prevented from being considered for this appointment. All information given will be treated confidentially.

Have you been convicted of a criminal offence, or do you have a prosecution pending?

Yes No If yes, please state the date and nature of the offence below:

Working with Vulnerable Adults

As Scarborough Survivors works with vulnerable adults, you must declare any prior abuse convictions and whether you have ever been the subject of any abuse investigation or enquiry. Should we offer you employment and you have failed to disclose such convictions, you could be dismissed or face disciplinary action. All information given will be treated confidentially.

Do you have any abuse convictions or have you ever been the subject of an abuse investigation or enquiry?

Yes No If yes, please give details including dates and the investigating body:

Declaration

The information I have provided on this application form is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I accept that any false statement or omission of relevant information could lead to the withdrawal of any offer of employment or in dismissal.

If you are completing this form electronically, you will be asked to sign the form if invited to an interview.
